this book presents a comparative study of tristan tzara 1896 1963 and mário de andrade 1893 1945 analysing their contributions to oral language traditions and to the body of criticism on modernism this is the first work to offer an analysis of tzara s posthumously published prose personnage d insomnie and the first in the english language that explores de andrade s libretto for the opera café as well as other examples of their poetry and prose the romanian jewish poet and writer tzara later a naturalised french citizen became a central figure in the european avant garde from 1916 when he took part in the dada movement mario de andrade the brazilian poet writer and musicologist of mixed origins was a contemporary of tzara and a similarly central figure in the 1922 são paulo modern art week that defined brazilian modernism both emerged from very different backgrounds but they followed a parallel creative path this book discusses their research and adaptation of various language manifestations ethnopoetics and folk traditions that led them to the creation of distinct and individual styles the historical and socio political events of the late 1930s would later prompt both authors to develop militant poetics through chronologically compatible case studies the reader will discover that tzara and de andrade alongside their playful language actively criticised cultural imperialism and advocated against hate journeys can be physical and intellectual they can crisscross leave traces and overlap this book takes the reader from two starting points a small romanian town in the foothills of the carpathians and a two storey house in an unusually tranquil street in são paulo brazil to the heart of the twentieth century avant garde as it shows tristan tzara and mário de andrade traversed borders and geographical points and their poetics meet in mozambique parisian cafés and bantu chants
